DESCRIPTION

Twenty hectares nestled alongside the celebrated Oromana Natural Park, in Alcalá de Guadaíra, Sevilla. Its privileged position at the edge of this breathtaking natural reserve — paired with sweeping, uninterrupted views — makes it a true sanctuary for those who live for nature and horses.

7,700 sqm of built surface is thoughtfully distributed across residences and equestrian facilities. The main house features a pool and cistern, three bedrooms, a living room, dining room, study, three bathrooms, and a laundry room, complemented by a fully self-contained guest apartment with two bedrooms, a living area, kitchen, and bathroom.

Key facilities include:

50 stables, a round pen, both indoor and outdoor driving tracks, a tack room and carriage house, generous fodder silos, and a spacious event hall.

Every amenity has been considered for the breeding and training of fine equine specimens at the highest level.
